Subject: Important Announcement: OKiCON

Dear OKiCON Fans,

We have made the difficult decision to cancel OKiCON. Despite every effort, the current convention climate in Oklahoma has made it impossible to hold the kind of show you deserve.

All tickets purchased through TIXR will be automatically refunded within the next 60 days.

We're deeply grateful for your continued support of Fandom Events and our conventions nationwide. While OKiCON won't move forward, we thank you for your understanding and loyalty; it means everything.
